

24th NATIONAL VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING RESEARCH CONFERENCE NO FRILLS

6-8 July 2015
Sydney, New South Wales

Youth ■ Pathways ■ Skills

Summary of the research

The 2015 conference focused on three major themes: youth – engaging, inspiring and supporting students to realise their potential; pathways – transitioning through education and training into the workforce; skills – working with industry and employers to improve education and training.

Five of the presentations were submitted as research papers for peer review and the key findings are presented in this infographic.

Profiling the institutional diversity of VET providers in Australia, across four broad dimensions

This 'average' hides the significant diversity that exists amongst training providers in Australia.

Understanding the needs of VET students articulating to second-year university

Skills needed for innovation

Learning preferences of Enrolled Nursing students

Improving VET teachers' skills and their approach to professional learning

